Festival for car fans

Tickets for the Essen Motor Show 2024 are now available

Visitors can choose from various offers in the online store

It is the festival for all car fans: from November 30 to December 8, 2024 (Preview Day: November 29), the Essen Motor Show will bring together around 500 exhibitors at Messe Essen who will make the public's eyes light up. Whether performance and racing, tuning and lifestyle, motorsport or classic cars: anyone who loves cars is guaranteed to find what they are looking for at the EMS. Because the demand for tickets is high, visitors can now purchase tickets for the highlight of the year on the Essen Motor Show website (www.essen-motorshow.de).

A day ticket still costs 20 euros; reduced tickets are available for 16 euros for pupils, students and people with disabilities. Messe Essen is also once again offering affordable afternoon tickets for 14 euros. Special prices apply for the coveted Preview Day on November 29: Here, regular admission costs 32 euros, concessions 27 euros and afternoon tickets 17 euros. Admission is free for children under the age of 6 on all days of the fair.

The most popular tuning event in Europe

"We are very satisfied with the current preparations. The halls are as good as full and fans can look forward to new names as well as familiar exhibitors. There will be one or two surprises, which we will reveal more about soon. Until then, we will continue to go full throttle," announces Project Manager Ralf Sawatzki. Launched in 1968 as the International Sports and Racing Car Exhibition, the Essen Motor Show is now the most popular tuning event in Europe and is taking place for the 56th time this year.
