

The Scimone Floriculture company, whose location in North Eastern Sicily overlooks the splendid Strait of Messina, offers high quality ornamental plants. Scimone Floriculture combines tradition with new technologies to offer a wide range of Kentia and Chamaedorea. The plants are of the highest quality, elegant, durable and robust and can be used to decorate all types of indoor environments. The systems are available in various sizes and combinations to meet customer needs.